Cause

Charge Number

Violation

One

There is probable cause to believe that the offender violated the special condition to participate in Home Confinement for a period of eight months.

According to the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (BICE), on September 19, 2007, the offender was deported to Mexico. The offender was not placed on Home Confinement, due to the offender's deportation to Mexico.

The above violation is evidenced by the chronological records from the U.S. Probation Office.

Two There is probable cause to believe that the offender violated the special condition to pay his $1,000.00 fine.

According to the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (BICE), on September 19, 2007, the offender was deported to Mexico. On July 15, 2008, the U.S. Attorney's Office, Financial Litigation Unit (FLU) confirmed the offender failed to pay his $1,000.00 fine.

The above violation is evidenced by the Case Inquiry Report from FLU dated July 15, 2008 and chronological records from the U.S. Probation Office.

Action Taken and Reason

The offender has been deported to Mexico where he remains. Due to the offender's deportation, the probation office has been unable to enforce the offender's condition to complete home confinement and pay his fine. The offender's supervision is due to terminate on August 31, 2008. The probation office is recommending that supervision be allowed to terminate as scheduled with the remaining fine balance of $1,000.00 and home confinement.

The Assistant U.S. Attorney has been notified and there are no objections.

Respectfully submitted,
